

Section: Professional Practice

Section Number: I

Page 1 of 1

Subject: Clinical Practice

Issued: September 2010

Revised:

Distribution: All Employees & Members

Approved: Transitional Council
SCM - 2010

BACKGROUND

It is the expectation that the Saskatchewan midwife has an overall ethical obligation to practice the authorized practices of midwifery according to contemporary best practice guidelines for the profession.

GUIDELINE

Saskatchewan midwives practice according to evidence-based best practice guidelines for the profession of midwifery as indicated in documents and determined by organizations such as, but not limited to:

- Canadian Competencies for Midwives
- Code of Ethics for Midwives in Saskatchewan
- Model of Practice
- The Midwifery Act - Saskatchewan
- The Midwifery Regulations - Saskatchewan
- Society of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists of Canada (SOGC)
- Canadian Paediatric Society
- Canadian Association of Midwives
- Approved policy of the Saskatchewan College of Midwives